35th ANNUAL WOODSTOCK WASSAIL CELEBRATION HORSE AND CARRIAGE HOLIDAY PARADE

To benefit: High Horses Therapeutic Riding Program

SATURDAY Afternoon, DECEMBER 8, 2018

With costumes and carolers, snowflakes and scarves, mistletoe and merriment comes the Wassail Horse and Carriage Holiday Parade! Riders and drivers alike are invited to parade through Woodstock in fine Victorian holiday attire. Carolers will add to the festivities while the local community and visitors gather in downtown Woodstock to watch participants ride and drive an approximately 2-mile loop including the Woodstock Green where judges await.

Currier and Ives costumes and 19th Century Victorian Seasonal Attire are strongly encouraged.

Award Categories for 2018 Wassail Parade:

Best Individual Costume, Best Group, Best Horse Drawn Vehicle, Most Seasonally Attired, Most Historic, Best Junior Entry, & Judges Award

Bring out those saddles and harnesses once again and join us for a merry holiday afternoon!

**Please be aware that the Wassail Celebration draws over 2000 spectators; Please help keep this event safe and fun for spectators and participants alike by bringing two of your own marshals**
